

SWEET CITY!

We have determined to sweep our house clear of all our Summer goods now on hand in order to have clean shelves for our Fall stock. In Tan Goods, Men's and Women's Low Cuts, in all grades—all elegant styles and best qualities—we are determined to put slaughter prices on to make them go.

OUR DAILY MAIL

[The Editor of THE LEDGER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents, but nothing reflecting upon the character or habits of any person will be admitted to these columns.]

OUR AGENTS.

The following are authorized Agents for THE PUBLIC LEDGER in their respective localities:

SPRINGDALE.

George Hughes and sons began topping tobacco this week.

Miss Pearl Fletcher of Rectorville is visiting the family of C. M. Redman.

T. M. Doyle of Foxport shipped, via our town, a large lot of lambs to the city on Monday.

John Trumbo, accompanied by his little daughter, visited the family of J. Trumbo this week.

William Crutcher is suffering very much with neuralgia of the head, which seems to affect his eyes. He has almost lost his sight.

We regret to hear of the loss by fire of the warehouse and mill belonging to Mr. Million of Foxport. Loss about $2,000. Uninsured.

Captain and Mrs. Degman of Schuyler, Neb., who are spending the summer with their mother, Mrs. McDonald, are visiting at Maplewood this week.

Efforts will be made on next Lord's day to organize a class in singing. Let all interested be present at the Bible class hour, which is 9 o'clock a. m.

Do not forget that Brother Lucas of Maysville will preach at Plumville on Lord's day at 3:30 p. m. Let all who are interested in "practical" religious teaching come out.

Who dares to say "we" are not progressive? Have "we" not opened that little culvert, and it was only closed for two years instead of two years and one month, as some one said, and whose business is it if the bridge pier does wash out by our management? Have "we" not great influence with the Court of Claims?

MORANBURG.

The July planting of tobacco is not looking very well.

Mrs. Best of Dover is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Lloyd, this week.

If the bridge would talk it could tell things that would astonish the natives.

Mrs. Laura Perrine and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Tuckahoe visited on the Creek last Wednesday.

One of our most prosperous farmers tried the experiment of salting his tobacco. It all died.

The ladies of this neighborhood are afraid to be caught out on the German-town pike after dusk.

Thank you, Brother, at Springdale, but there are some falls here that need doubling and twisting.

The valise that was found and advertised in Wednesday's LEDGER belonged to Mrs. Powell Owens of Fernleaf.

John Higgins went to Maysville Wednesday and made the colored folks a deed for a lot to erect their new church-house on.

William Bly has left the 'burg. He says it's too hot a place for him. He would be a good one to have before the Grand Jury.

The Prayer-meeting has increased in attendance all that could be desired. Now let the leaders make it interesting and instructive.

A number of persons in this section are complaining of being ill, especially the babies. This seems to be a hard summer on the little ones.

A cordial invitation is given to the children to attend Sunday-school at the Stone Church next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Come and get a copy of THE Sunday-school Visitor, a bright little paper.

The many friends of Miss Katie Merrill will be sad to learn of her death, which occurred at her home on Jersey Ridge on Friday morning. Miss Katie was a good member and a liberal supporter of the old Stone Church on Lawrence creek. She will be sadly missed.

The Postmaster at Maysville informs THE LEDGER correspondent at this place that THE LEDGER leaves his Postoffice every day for Moranburg. This should be satisfactory evidence to our subscribers that the carelessness in our worthy Postmaster. We all hope he will do better in the future.

The acting Controller of Currency has called for a statement of the condition of the National banks at the close of business Tuesday, July 13th.

Fire and Accident Ins. W. R. Warder.
